

Easter Egg Hunt for Toddlers.

Cut out the clues and hide them around the garden, revealing where the next treat and clue can be found.

These simple clues will support little learners, by providing both an image and the written word. You could also spell each word together, encouraging the early use of phonics.

